Thanks, Tim. This looks good. I made a few minor edits and have a couple of questions/comments:

- Under Procurement Strategies: What is CRB?
- Under Procurement Strategies: Consider listing "Industry forum" as a way to get feedback and develop interest from prospective bidders.

I think we should keep the tone conversational and use the slides to gently guide the discussion. Much appreciated.

That's it for me

Hack where you see fit and make sure Guan and I have your hacked version tomorrow.

When can you send the cleaned up version to me?
