I think this looks great, but echo Mike's comment about begin construction in early 2011. It is the target/goal we want to keep the team focused on, understanding there are things that may make that a difficult goal to meet.

Looks great to me except construction should begin in early 2011 instead of mid- 2011. Thanks, Kimberly.

Here are the pieces I would like to hand out on Monday. There are a couple of edits that have to be made to the Bored Tunnel PDF I have attached, but I wanted you to get the idea. If you could get comments back to me by noon-ish Friday, that would be great.
