Subject: Puget Sound Business Journal Interview - Can you do?

Ron --

Steve Wilhelm from the Puget Sound Business Journal would like to talk to one of the RPs about freight access with a bored tunnel. The freight community has expressed concern about lack of access at Elliott/Western with a bored tunnel. He has already talked to the Port of Seattle.

We thought you'd be the best person to talk to Steve who is on a 3 p.m. deadline -- any chance you can give him a call? Let me know and I'll let Steve know when to expect your call.

His number is 206-876-5427.

Thanks
AJG
