Here is the first of two emails from the city with maps.

Mark -- Let's talk tomorrow about how we get these quickly reviewed because we need them for a Thursday briefing.

Subject: AWV - NW additional maps

We are working on a brochure for NW neighborhoods. To manage space, we've combined some of the information on the maps sent in the earlier email. The brochure would include from previous email:

- How the bored tunnel works for northwest seattle
- maintaining freight connections to ballard/interbay

attached here:

- Brochure_How the new Alaskan Way provides access through downtown for northwest Seattle (the attached combines info from two of the maps in the previous email).
- a graphic of two-way Mercer
