Any update on this? The response to a legislators that this is part of is due as soon as possible.

Thanks
AJG

John,

I will start on this today. Should have the "raw" data for EI tomorrow.

Mike,

Not sure if this got to you yet, we need to quickly pull together a summary document that captures some of the thinking from the scenario risk workshop. Specifically, we need a one-pager that captures the risk allocation between the options and the key points behind, say, the basic difference in risks between cut and cover vs integrated elevated vs bored tunnel vs...

Let's start compiling the content and EI will handle formatting. Need it this week, next couple days preferably.
